

SPECIAL ADVISOR

Olga Kaganova, Ph.D., CRE
Independent Consultant
Washington, DC

Research and Consulting Interests

- Government and property asset management
- Real estate and urban reform
- Private and public-sector reform and emerging markets
- Land management

Recent Publications

1. Kaganova, O., & McKellar, J. (2006). Managing Government Property Assets: International Experiences. Urban Institute Press. Washington, D.C.
2. Kaganova, O. & Jaffee, D. (2001) Real Estate Markets. in The New Russia: Transition Gone Awry. California: Stanford University Press
3. Kaganova, O. & Avrutis, E. (1997) Russia. in Real Estate Valuation in Global Markets. Chicago: The Appraisal Institute
4. Kaganova, O., Berezin, M. (1997) The Russian Federation. in In Housing Privatization in Eastern Europe. Westport, CT: Greenwood Press
5. Kaganova, O., (1996) Market-Oriented Developers in St. Petersburg: Activities and Problems. in Russia: Urban Development and Emerging Property Markets. Paris: Association des Études Foncières.

Background

- Senior Associate at the Urban Institute, Washington, D.C
- Former Principal Research Scientist, NORC at the University of Chicago
- Founding partner and former Director for the Agency for Urban Research and Consulting Co. Ltd. (AUREC) in St. Petersburg, Russia
- Certificate in Advanced Course of Cadastral and Land Information System. Gavle, Sweden 1991
- Ph.D. Applied Mathematics, Siberian Br. of Academy of Science, Krasnojarsk, Russia 1981
- Postgraduate School, Academy of Science, Pushino-on-Oka, Russia 1987
- Diploma in Applied Mathematics, Novosibirsk State University, Russia 1972

Contact Information

Tel: +1-202 261-5765

Email: okaganov@ui.urban.org

LinkedIn: Olga Kaganova